

1.6 Attempted robbery at drive-through

A worker at a fast food restaurant reported an attempted robbery. She stated:

"A man drove up to the service window, pointed a handgun at me and demanded money. I closed the window and walked away fast – next thing, the man had driven off pretty smartly. He was a young fella, he looked quite studious, wearing glasses and he had blonde hair. I couldn't tell you anything else about him. He wasn't overweight though."

