

1.2 Mobile phone theft

Miss Pauline Jones had her mobile phone snatched while she was walking along the High Street talking on the phone. She reported:

"I was phoning my boyfriend when suddenly this guy came up behind me on roller blades, wrenched my phone out of my hand and was off before I even realised what was going on. I didn't really see his face as he was wearing a hoody, but I got the impression he was just a teenager. He was quite short, no more than 1.6 metres, sort of medium build."

