

1.5 Forgery!

A man has been passing off forged £20 notes in local shops. A witness has come forward to describe the man.

"I was in my first week of a new job at the local shop and this man came up to the counter, wanted a pack of cigarettes. He gave me this note and I gave him the fags and his change, and off he went. Then the boss finished with her customer, looked over and said "Let me see that note." Sure enough it was a forgery. The man was old enough to be my grandfather, with a bald head and he walked with a bit of a limp. I don't remember anything else about him.
